MA RAISES NEARLY $1 MILLION IN FIRST HALF OF 2025 IN LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR RACE

State Treasurer has $4.5 Million Cash on Hand, Far Outpacing Rivals

SAN FRANCISCO — State Treasurer Fiona Ma, CPA continues to dominate fundraising in the California Lieutenant Governor’s race. Ma reported raising $933,212.87 from January through June 2025. This gives her more than $4.5 million cash on hand. In total, she has raised $7,014,711.62 in her bid for the state’s second highest office.

“These numbers reflect what we’ve felt on the ground all across California: voters are ready for a proven leader who shows up, gets things done, and puts people first,” says Ma. “I’m deeply grateful to the Californians who have joined our campaign and our shared vision for our state.”

Ma previously served as a San Francisco County Supervisor, State Assemblymember, and Board of Equalization member. She has earned the trust of voters and leaders alike for her decades of public service focused on infrastructure investment, job creation, small business support, and fiscal responsibility.

Ma is endorsed by a broad and diverse slate of leaders and organizations including:
