

Fiona Ma for Lieutenant Governor 2026

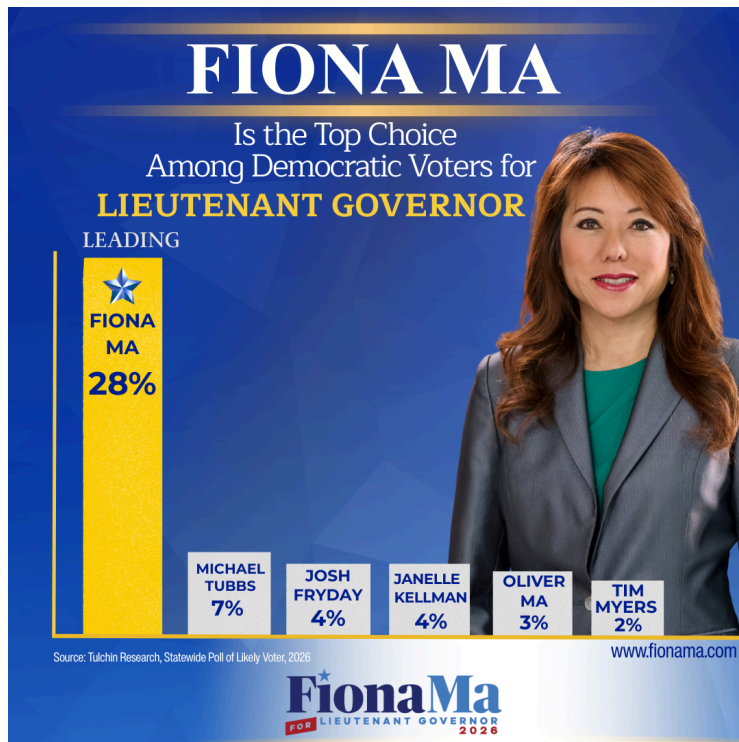

Campaign Newsletter | February 2026

Hello,

I hope you're doing well. As we begin 2026, I'm grateful for the energy we're building across California - and I'm excited to share a few campaign highlights from the past month, including a major new poll.

FEATURED NEWS

Building a Growing Coalition of Support

A recent Tulchin Research statewide poll of likely June 2026 primary voters in California finds Fiona Ma entering the race for Lieutenant Governor in a strong and encouraging position. Fiona begins the race solidly in the top two. She is the only Democrat currently registering double-digit support statewide thanks to her dominant advantage among Democratic voters. Just as importantly, once voters hear more information about the candidates, Fiona significantly extends her lead, underscoring her ability to consolidate Democratic support and build a winning coalition. Speaking of coalitions, I'm honored to be earning hundreds of endorsements from labor unions, elected leaders, and community advocates across California who know my record and trust me to deliver results. These endorsements represent millions of working Californians — from teachers and nurses to public employees, service workers, and the building trades.

This support means so much to me because it reflects something bigger than politics: it reflects shared values and a shared belief that California deserves leadership that is experienced, prepared, and focused on real solutions.

Together, we are building a campaign rooted in:

- ★ unity
- ★ inclusion
- ★ affordability
- ★ public safety
- ★ opportunity

And we are just getting started.

FEATURED EVENT

Latinos for Fiona Ma — Boyle Heights

Mariachi Plaza | January 24, 2026

Last month, I was proud to host Latinos for Fiona Ma in the heart of Boyle Heights at Mariachi Plaza — a vibrant community celebration honoring Latino culture, civic engagement, and the strength of immigrant communities.

We came together with more than 200 supporters, including labor leaders, elected officials, community advocates, and families who believe in a California where everyone can thrive.

The afternoon featured live mariachi music, cultural performances, local food vendors, and powerful conversations about opportunity, affordability, and dignity.

As the daughter of immigrant parents, this event meant the world to me — and it reminded me exactly why I'm running: to protect the California Dream and make it possible for every family.

Thank you to everyone who attended, supported, and helped make this event such a success.

Honoring Black History Month

February is Black History Month — a time to reflect, honor, and celebrate the leadership, courage, and contributions of Black Americans who have shaped our state and our country.

Black history is American history. It is the story of resilience, progress, and the fight to ensure that our nation lives up to its promise of justice and equality.

This month, I recommit myself to doing the work — not just offering words — to ensure California remains a place where every community is respected, protected, and able to succeed.

♥ We honor the past — and we fight for the future.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Legacy Still Guides Us

In January, I shared a message honoring Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his enduring call for justice, peace, and brotherhood.

Dr. King's vision remains deeply relevant today. His leadership reminds us that progress is never automatic — it must be defended, strengthened, and carried forward by people who are willing to stand up for what's right.

As Lieutenant Governor, I will always stand for unity, dignity, and equal opportunity — and I will never stop fighting for a California where no one is left behind.

Showing Up Across California

One of the best parts of this campaign is traveling throughout our state — meeting with community leaders, workers, small business owners, educators, and families.

Over the past several weeks, I've continued connecting with Californians about the issues that matter most:

- ✓ affordability
- ✓ housing and homeownership
- ✓ education and workforce training
- ✓ public safety
- ✓ good-paying jobs

I believe leadership means showing up — and I'm committed to continuing to earn your trust every step of the way.

Honored to Receive a Leadership Award

I was humbled to receive a recent Outstanding Statewide Advocate award from the Sacramento Young Democrats recognizing my commitment to public service.

I don't do this work for recognition — I do it because I love California, and I believe that the government can and must deliver real results for working families.

But I'm grateful for the support, encouragement, and partnerships that continue to lift up this campaign. We are building something special — together.

Delivering Results as California State Treasurer

As State Treasurer, I've managed California's finances and helped protect taxpayer dollars while investing in our future — from infrastructure and school construction to programs that expand opportunity statewide.

That experience matters.

California needs leaders who understand budgets, accountability, and how to deliver results — especially at a time when families are being squeezed by rising costs and uncertainty.

That's the same approach I will bring to the Lieutenant Governor's office: responsible leadership and real outcomes.
